

All These Years

Agnostic Front

We're forging a path
The way it's meant to be
And living our lives
By our own means

Some will understand us
Others never will
But never walked in these
Shoes we fill
It's a blessing, a burden
A gift, a war!
Not hatred just dischord

We're still going strong
After all these years
And paving the way
For others to succeed

This is our life
And now is the time
This is our life
With honor and pride

Were forging a path the way
It's meant to be
And living our lives
By our own means
We're still going strong
After all these years
And paving the way
For others to succeed
We set the standards
We start the trends
Still going strong!
Here 'til the end!
