Do you feel so betrayed? Like to dance that beat away? Hip-pop club guys look at You feel so free

What can you do put yourself down You're a disgrace Why do you support them? As they call you bitch to your face

Why do you support them? Listen to the rhythm it's so great You don't care what the lyrics say Trade your pride for a dance

You'll support them as you laugh As I see you're going nowhere But you like the fashion that they wear You let them put you down 'cause it's popular music

And you'll pretend that you don't care Speak up in a crowd, you don't dare You'll just pretend that you don't care Oh yeah
