United and Strong

Agnostic Front

A scene all divided with no unity We gotta stick together And fight for what we believe

There won't be a second chance We've got to have it soon Got to stick together And fight 'em all now

Our friends are more important We gotta stick together Support one another United and strong