

Devil

Agonizer

This has got to be the first
I never dreamed of falling like this
I am stronger than anyone you know

Blinded by the purest grace
It's like I've doomed myself to hell
I should be thrilled about all the pain

This is not the way it should be
I was the lord of thunder
I was the evil for eternity...

Now I'm just immortal angel
Fallen through the fires of hell

I came here
For the proof
Of solitary
And fell in love
I came here
For you
For company

Now everyone is laughing at me
I've never given mercy
Even for the purest of souls

This is not the way it should be
I was the lord of thunder
I was the evil for eternity
Now I'm on my knees
Have mercy on me
