Wild Flowers

Agua de Annique

Like wild flowers Left alone By the side of the road Imperfect on the edge

Like wild flowers
Left alone
By the side of the road
Imperfect on the edge

They stand in the wind and the rain Not a fear left in the world They've learned that this life Is unpredictable

Like wild flowers
By the side of the road
Imperfect on the edge

Far away Where the moon falls into the sea

Without knowing anything for certain This may be the last day So everything has more meaning And so much more color this way
