

Dying Man

Air Raid

As they regret
The war they are waging
I can't help but feel
There's no turning back

March my friend
Alone again
Don't forget
You defend

Now I fight
On my own again
The words I heard
Were the words of a dying man

The battle is raging
Cries of death all around
Soldiers from all sides
Falling flat to the ground

March my friend
Alone again
Don't forget
You defend

Now I fight
On my own again
The words I heard
Were the words of a dying man

Defend our people, protect the clan
No matter what, you'll overcome

Even if you're the last in line, they'll die
Leave all your fears behind

World domination was their plan
Their plan has failed, we have won

Their weapons proved useless
Against our will to survive and defy
For one hour of freedom
We gladly lay our lives on the line

A voice resounds
March my friend, you defend

March my friend, alone again
Don't forget, you defend

Now I fight on my own again
The words I heard
Were the words of a dying man
