

You Are My Everything

Al Green

Sometimes I do
Then again I don't
Sometimes I will
Then again I won't

You are my everything
Everything to me
You are my every....everything

Sometimes it's yes
Then again it's no
Sometimes I really wish that
Then again I'm one of both

You are my day shouting right
So I won't complain
You are my every....everything

Call me in the morning
Won't you call me in the afternoon
Call me everynow but long distance real soon
I gotta walk and'a talk of the joy in the whole world
You're my everything, you're my high
You're my everything

It's hard for me to explain

Wait a minute..
What more could I want
Every year by my side
This love is everlasting
I set the chain high
