

Hello... I'm Johnny Cash

Alabama 3

what's your name?
what's your name?

my daddy he was a gambler abandoned mamma when I was four all he left us was his old gramophone player his 45 records he kept under the floorboards now my boss says I'm good for nothin' said to sweep this factory floor they got shania twain, garth brooks on the radio when I get home tonight I'll walk through the door and say hello... hello I'm Johnny Cash

hello... hello I'm Johnny Cash
yes I am
rollin' down the train tracks oh no, I ain't comin back the man in me is the man in black
the man in me is the man in black

my woman wears a long black veil cause I always like to walk the line I'm gonna to take her out tonight I'm goin' to Jackson we gonna fall into that ring of fire I said oh Delia, my sweet Delia I don't want this Folsom prison blues I won't take my guns to town tonite if you dont call me a boy named sue

hello... hello I'm Johnny Cash
I said, hello... hello I'm Johnny Cash
yes I am
rollin' down the train tracks
the man in me is the man in black
the man in me is the man in black

I was there when they crucified the Lord
I was there when they crucified the Lord (I was there, I was there, I was there)

I said to Jesus
hello... hello I'm Johnny Cash
I said to jesus
hello... sweet hello, Lord, I'm Johnny Cash

I said hello... hello, I'm Johnny Cash
I said hello... hello, I'm Johnny Cash
