

Hey Joe,
Why you standing on the corner,
Saturday night special in your hand?
Your dancing like John the Baptist Tellin' me
your gonna take me to the Promised Land
Well I want to know

Will you be saved by the devil?
Will you be saved by the Lord?
Will you make it through to midnight?
Will you be gone
before the dawn?

Sweet Jane
Why you wearing that red dress, baby?
Why you got a chihuahua on your knees?
Your looking like a million dollars honey
Why you ask me for a hundred think you can set me free?
Well I can't see

Will you be saved by the devil?
Will you be saved by the Lord?
Will you make it through to midnight?
Will you be gone
before the dawn?

Will you be gone before the dawn?
You gotta serve somebody
You gotta serve someone

Hey Joe will you take her to the chapel?
Sweet Jane will you take him to the grave?
Hey Joe, say hello to Sweet Jane
Are you ready?
Are you ready to be saved?

Gotta serve somebody
Gotta serve someone
