

Sacrifice

Alaine

OK ..ready

For you (I swear)

For you (I will)

For you I will sacrifice for all of my life

You and me will be together

For better or for worse

I vow through ups and downs

Here and now until forever

I'll sacrifice

Baby, you and me

Made it through so much

So many storms have come and

Still we're holding on

And I would be a fool to find your love

And then just let it go

It's me and you and you already know that...

You're sure that you love me unconditionally

Do whatever, you'll stay by my side

You're the one I trust with all my secrets

All my hidden fears

I run to you and you are always there

Sacrifice my love, my life

Baby, I know I will adore

I know but see into you

To you, to love, I'll hold on tight

No matter what may come my way

I'll do whatever it takes
