

Return to Nevermore

Alcatrazz

One night one the lost horizon
Lust filled with desire and poison
That shattered the night
With power and delight
Voodoo and the wings of darkness
Black souls asking forgiveness
For you and for me
The young and the free.

You must return don't close the door
We lost the key that sets our hearts on fire
Now comes the day you must surrender
A new life waiting here for you.

I think I've heard this song before
Don't stop to look, don't stop to dream.

We will return some day to Nevermore
Heart is breaking, spirit shaking

Day came and the dream was ended
So lost and we all pretended
That e were all right
But then comes the night
Voodoo and the wings of darkness
Black souls asking forgiveness
For you and for me
The young and the free

I think I've heard this song before
Don't stop to look, don't stop to dream.

We will return some day to Nevermore
Heart is breaking, spirit shaking
We will return some day to Nevermore
Feel the power, now's the hour

One night one the lost horizon
Lust filled with desire and poison
That shattered the night
With power and delight

We will return some day to Nevermore
Heart is breaking, spirit shaking
We will return some day to Nevermore
Feel the power, now's the hour
