□□□...□□□□□□

What a hard to live in this world
Some days I want to be alone
There are days when I loneliness is frightened.
The day want to die by chance
I thought you could be strong if you were an adult
why are people so?
Why would I do that?
I just want to stay with me...All of you.

□□□...□□□□□□

I know it's inconsistent
That's why I didn't like myself
(I) always see people smiling and tears come out
When I see an honest person
I get awfully dazzling and sad
I wonder if such oneself is bad after all?
Is that the nature of life? How about you?

I know, but I still have trouble...
How hard it is to live...
I just want to stay with me... All of you.
