

Somebody To Use

Alesso

Boy you don't listen, don't hear a word I say
My intuition says I should run away
But now I'm running to you, a sweet escape
I'm feeling something, don't even know your name

Come on, let's go
I know your intentions with me so
You don't have to say what you need
I'm ready for anything, anything

Said your bed is getting colder
Begged me to come over
You just want somebody to use
And my heart's still getting sober
Destined for some closure
I could use somebody to

Somebody to use, somebody to use, ah-ah
Somebody like you, somebody like you, ah-ah-ah
Somebody to use, somebody to use, ah-ah
Somebody like you, somebody like you, ah-ah-ah

Don't wanna listen, don't hear a word you say
I'd rather be kissing, boy have you seen your face?
Don't wanna lose it, only the clothes on me
Leaving the music, so it's just you and me only

Come on, let's go
I know your intentions with me so
You don't have to say what you need
I'm ready for anything, anything

Said your bed is getting colder
Begged me to come over
You just want somebody to use
And my heart's still getting sober
Destined for some closure
I could use somebody to

Somebody to use, somebody to use, ah-ah
Somebody like you, somebody like you, ah-ah-ah
Somebody to use, somebody to use, ah-ah
Somebody like you, somebody like you

Said your bed is getting colder
Begged me to come over
You just want somebody to use
And my heart's still getting sober
Destined for some closure
I could use somebody to
(I could use somebody to)
