

End is Nigh

Alex Cameron

I'm pleased to hear you're coming to visit soon
I'm glad to hear you're coming through
I'll get the cabin ready for you and your girl
Ye the wife and kids will be here too

There's a guy who thinks I'm fucking his girlfriend
He says he's gonna make me cry
But I couldn't get it up if I wanted to man
And I already want to die

If the end is nigh
Baby, I don't think I wanna survive
If the end is nigh
Baby, make it swift and let me die

I started going along to the meetings
Tequila down to my core
But they remind of my daddy with that bible shit
And drinking coffee makes me wanna die more

Gonna miss writing songs on piano
Gonna miss shay and her giant cans
Gonna miss that pretty little Jew Rado
Gonna miss my daughter growing into a man

If the end is nigh
Baby, I don't think I wanna survive
If the end is nigh
Baby, make it swift and let me die

She said you look all hungover
And you smell like a skunk
I said how can I be hungover
If I'm still drunk

I'm still drunk
But I still can spot the sky
Ye I'm drunk
But I still know there's an almond in your eye
Making sure I'm high
Just in case the end is nigh
