

Gaslight

Alex Cameron

Well you, are the only one
Ye you, are the only one
Now tell me, I'm the only one
Ye go on girl and say it, I'm the only one

And that's why, when I'm feeling something ain't right
I hold you tight, and use my gaslight

Baby, talk to me, you've been acting strange
I can see you in your eye that there's something wrong
And these texts are all crazy
I'm not surprised, cause I've seen it before
Don't go lying now baby
Your dates are all hazy,
Hear me out, I'm a nice guy
In the night, use my gaslight

I know you, like your mama does
You need help, like a baby does
And these so called friends are lying when they tell you
Your life's changed for the better
And I know if I had friends they'd probably tell me
Say boy you should go get her

And that's why, when you're feeling that fight or flight
It's so warm and bright
Use my gaslight

Baby, talk to me, you've been acting strange
I can see you in your eye that there's something wrong
And these texts are all crazy
I'm not surprised, cause I've seen it before
Don't go lying now baby
Your dates are all hazy,
Hear me out, I'm a nice guy
In the night, use my gaslight
