Don't get too close, don't fall for anything you see
This man's a monster
This man is dangerous
Don't waste your time, he knows how he's supposed to be
This man's a goner

We know what's right
And we can spot an aberration
Too late we're coming now
Too late we're coming now
You should have known
Before you made your big mistake
And it's too late, we're coming now

You've had all of history to shout us down
And you won't like what we are saying now
Time is up for karma to come back around
And I'll enjoy watching you fall down

Don't get too close, don't fall for anything you see
This man's a monster

Now you're afraid
You must have wondered all these years, when
When would we come for you
And now we've come for you
And you will burn till we forget your name
Except to say

Don't get too close, don't fall for anything you see
This man's a monster
This man is dangerous
Don't waste your time, he knows how he's supposed to be
This man's a goner
