

Overthinking

Alex Day

Before I fall asleep, I dream
All these scenarios, or you could call 'em fantasies
And I'm in every one of 'em and things would turn out different ly
My head is filled with meant-to-be's
And I don't know which one to choose
If the right phrase in the right place can affect change, what have I got to lose
I am not getting any younger so is it any wonder I am stuck on you
Thinking it through is all I do

What am I supposed to do with you on my mind
What am I supposed to say to make this alright
Who am I supposed to be to get through the night
I'm probably just overthinking
I'm probably just overthinking
I'm probably just overthinking
I'm probably just overthinking

January '97 I was seven and I'm trying to remember but I think
I am forgetting, oh
Sometimes I think I think too much
But when the strings break and my voice gives out You'll be the one I am thinking about

So what am I supposed to do with you on my mind
What am I supposed to say to make this alright
Who am I supposed to be to get through the night
I'm probably just overthinking
I'm probably just overthinking
I'm probably just overthinking
I'm probably just overthinking

So tell me what am I supposed to do with you on my mind
What am I supposed to say to make this alright
Who am I supposed to be to get through the night
I'm probably just overthinking
I'm probably just overthinking
I'm probably just overthinking
I'm probably just overthinking
