

Money Honey

Alexia

I want your money honey
I don't want your body
Baby I don't need your love
I want your money honey
I don't want your body
Baby I don't need your love
I want your money honey
I don't want your body
Baby I don't need your love
Cause my heart is made of steel
I want your money honey
I don't want your body
Baby I don't need your love
Cause I don't believe in love
Love is a memory
That I keep on hiding deep in my soul
And every time I try save my heart
I loose myself so bad
Life is a mystery
No one knows the secrets do brake trough
And every time I try to change my ways
I find myself alone
I don't know what to do
All alone sad and blue
I never be that fool
I leave the misery
I don't want to fight for love anymore
And every time I think of yesterday
I see how it was wrong
I know my destiny
I don't want to shed my tears anymore
And every time I think of all my pain
I know that I'm strong
Now I know what to do
Don't wanna feel so blue
I never be that fool
Cause I don't Believe
Cause I don't belive
Cause I don't
I want your money honey
I don't want your body
Baby I don't need your love
