

Poppin Up

Ali Gatie

You only love me cause everybody love me
You only want me cause everybody want me
Yeah you had me I swear that you was lucky
I used to think that your pretty now your ugly

I ain't talking about your looks I'm talking about your persona lity
You used to ignore me now the tables turning casually
I'm doing the things you used to do so why you mad at me
Now you see me doing well you wondering what's happening

Now you want me cause I'm doing well and popping up
Only reason that you want me cause I'm popular
I don't need your love cause nowadays theirs lots of love
Cause of you now I never know who to trust

People switching up they energy around me
Ever since I found the money now they found me
I got fans around the world got fans in Saudi
I got fans in Portugal I got no boundaries

You only love me cause everybody love me
You only want me cause everybody want me
Yeah you had me I swear that you was lucky
I used to think that your pretty now your ugly

I used to think a lot about you that I don't think anymore
Used to think that your my baby now I think you just a hoe
Now you see me popping up your tryna pop up at my shows
I got fans around the world gotta shoutout to Detroit

This for everyone who said I need a plan B
While you living miserable I'm living happy
Private parties now you asking for the addy
Don't be mad at me cause your girl call me daddy

You only love me cause everybody love me
You only want me cause everybody want me
Yeah you had me I swear that she was lucky
I used to think she's was pretty now she's ugly

People switching up they energy around me
Ever since I found the money now they found me
I got fans around the world got fans in Saudi
I got fans in Portugal I got no boundaries
