

Into The Fire

Alias

I never much for rules
I never much for school
I ride in the sunset with an eagle as my guide
I fight alone into the fire

I can take it on my own
Or I leave it in the sand
I know you don't understand
Cause I'm just one man

I'm gonna stand up and fight
Cause I know that I'm right
I'm a Rambler, a cowboy's son
Cause in the saddle I'm tall
Don't mind the hard way
I'm a lonely gun
Into the fire

I never walked away
From the dues I had to pay
I ain't no villain even though I done the time
I'll be the judge into the fire

I can take it on my own
Or I leave it in the sand
I know you don't understand
Cause I'm just one man

I'm gonna stand up and fight
Cause I know that I'm right
I'm a Rambler, a cowboy's son
Cause in the saddle I'm tall
Don't mind the hard way
I'm a lonely gun
