

I Gotta Get Outta Here

Alice Cooper

Yeah, yeah
Yeah, yeah, yeah

I can't wait to wake up in my very own bed
Far away from the madness and my poundin' head
The shiver up my spine and this feelin' of dread

Well, first I finally passed out, then I woke up in pain
Tangled in the wreckage of a runaway train
Was I the last man on Earth or was I just insane?

I gotta, gotta, gotta, gotta get outta here
I gotta, gotta get outta here
I'm gettin' the message, it's totally clear
Yeah, I really gotta get outta here

Get, get, get right outta here
Get, get, get outta here, yeah

I danced at the disco where the bodies all fell
Piled up to the sky, what a sulfurous smell
Man, the ghouls on the beach, they were hotter than hell
(Yeah, yeah, yeah)

I popped the old man put a hole in his eye
Spent the night with the devil, she was such a bad guy
And if he has her way, I will eternally fry
(Yeah, yeah, yeah)

I gotta, gotta, gotta, gotta get outta here
I gotta, gotta get outta here
It's not complicated; yeah, it's pretty damn clear
I really gotta get outta here

Just wanna be myself again
And find my way out of this iniquitous den
I ain't havin' fun and I ain't makin' friends
I don't wanna know how this nightmare ends

I don't know why I'm here, why I've fallen from grace
I can't explain the burns or the scars on my face
Somebody please wake me up and get me outta this place
(Yeah, yeah, yeah)

I said, I gotta, gotta, gotta, gotta get outta here
I gotta, gotta get outta here
They say, Is it the message?
Clear to you yet, sonny

What part of dead don't you get?
Uh, excuse me?
What part of dead don't you get?
Whoa, whoa, whoa, whoa, wait a minute

What part of dead don't you get?
I'm sorry, are you talking to me?
What part of dead don't you get?

Hey, I signed on for a nightmare

What part of dead don't you get?

Really, I mean, that's a little twisted, don't you think?

What part of dead don't you get?

I, don't, I, I, hey, whoa

What part of dead don't you get?

I get it, but, but I don't get it

What part of dead don't you get?

I'm sinking here, hello?

Yeah, yeah, yeah
