Might As Well Be On Mars

Alice Cooper

Gm Eb 1. The city streets are wet with rain tonight Gm Eb Taxi drivers swerve from lane to lane Eb Gm A lonely guitar man playin' down the hall D Gm F C Midnight blues comin' through the walls Gm Eb I tried to call you on the telephone Gm Eb I left it off the hook just to hear it ring Eb Gm You told me you were better off alone D Eb I never knew that tears could stain Asm E F# Asm R: I'm on the roof and I'm starin' at the stars E B F# Lookin' down at all the cars Α E I can see you Asm Е F# Asm In the window of your favorite corner bar E B F# But to reach you is just too far Α Ε And I might as well be on Mars Gm Eb 2. The city seems so old and grey and beat Gm Eb It closes in and makes me wanna suffocate Gm Eb And you just live across the street D Eb But that's a billion miles away Е Asm F# Asm You've turned my world into a dark and lonely place EBF# Like a planet lost in space A E My light is fadin' Asm E F# Asm I'd cross the universe to be right where you are Е в F# But I'm right in your backyard ΑE And I might as well be on Mars F#

*: I might as well be on Mars E B You can't see me F#
I might as well be the Man on the Moon
E B
You can't hear me
Ebm Esus4 E
Oh, can you feel me
C#m B F#
So close and yet so far
A Gm F# B
Baby, I might as well be on Mars
F

Baby, I can't fly If I could I'd come down to ya Maybe I should try

R: I'm on the roof...

*: I might as well...
