

Nothing New

Alice In Wonderland

is it for yourself? the way you talk explanations were never found and it's so untrue, all you say, when we're alone i couldn't be like you, i never tried, i never would change your mind, don't let me down i'm so sorry, my tears are falling, every time i hear from you i'm so angry, my mind tells me, that in the end, there's nothing new

i remember things we used to do you know that just like you, i miss it too, i'm missing you

i'm so angry, my mind tells me, that in the end, there's nothing new
