

Cocoa Butter (Cross & Pic Interlude)

Alicia Keys

Cocoa butter on one of your arms?
You're supposed to put cocoa butter on your whole body

Listen, I'm talking to remove something that you're insecure about
But listen man, are you insecure about anything on you?
No, but there's women that are insecure about stretch marks

You insecure about something, what you insecure about?
Now you gon' have to share

My chipped tooth, I'm insecure about this bunion I got on my foot

Women are insecure about stretch marks, that's why they hide 'em
That's why they say stretch marks are your beauty scars
You just say, you wanna hit someone
Is you gonna hit, the joint you put me on one time was beautiful
Which joint I put you on? Listen but her stomach was a prune
But I still kissed her

Hold up, listen, listen, this is the thing
If you kissed her stomach and you cut your lip
