

Truth Without Love

Alicia Keys

Such a nuisance, tryna kill all the loose ends
Tell me how the truth became so elusive
Them illusions from the fusion, the intrusion
Contusion
You got me confused, man

Wish I could change everything up
You all in my zone, Jack go home, ain't the same 'cause
Wondering if I was still the same girl (I wonder)
The girl you knew before she came up (I wonder)

What if I was you?
What if I was the same?
What about the truth?
Runnin' round with no shame

What if I wasn't Alicia?
Would it please ya?
How would I feed ya?
What if to you I was just leecher?
Why would I need ya?
Why would I need ya, yeah

Tell me why the hell is something always wrong
Tell me why the hell I had to write this song
Even when I'm right, they gonna say I'm wrong
Oh well, oh well

Tell my why the hell I had to write this song
Tell me why the hell is something always wrong
Even when I'm right, they gonna say I'm wrong
Oh well, oh well

(Truth without love) Oh well, oh well
(Truth without love) Oh well, oh well
(Truth without love) Oh well, oh well

(Truth without love) Oh well, oh well

"You can't understand me" is an understatement
I love you more because I know you hate me
I love you more 'cause I know you forsake me
So you hate it more, can't wait to drive the stake in

You lucky I do this for different reasons
Shine all the time no matter the seasons

Lawry's
Swear they out here extra salty
Man, they out here extra salty
I swear they out here extra salty
Yeah

All in time, one day you'll find
The truth without love
Truth without love
The truth without love

Truth without love is just a lie

Oh well, oh well

Oh well, oh well

(Truth without love) Oh well, oh well

(Truth without love) Oh well, oh well

(Truth without love) Oh well, oh well

(Truth without love is just a lie) Oh well, oh well
