Yes it was a love to die for The monster that you are never scared me I dared you to dare me And now you're permanently scarred Well I'm through with you Treating me like you do My heart belongs to someone else now And I'm a fairy, I sparkle, Look at my eyes, I'm in love Are You Jealous? Are You Jealous? Are You Jealous? Are You Jealous? Don't make me your enemy Don't make me your enemy Well I'm just about as happy as I can be His love is like a waterfall Wet and bare like nothing all over me Pure heaven And he buys me flowers They don't wilt He doesn't have temper tantrums Begging me back He tells me I'm a princess, He's the best, I'm in love Are You Jealous? Are You Jealous? Are You Jealous? Are You Jealous? Don't make me your enemy Don't make me your enemy I'm not your enemy I'm not your enemy Yes it was a love to die for You never thought I'd leave Never thought I'd leave Those heavy arms around my neck So watch me go And look at me I'm satisfied I'm satisfied Tell me how do you feel When you look into my eyes? Are You Jealous? Are You Jealous? Are You Jealous? Are You Jealous? I'm not your enemy I'm not your enemy I'm not your enemy Are you? Are You Jealous

Are You Jealous

Don't make me your enemy Don't make me your enemy Don't make me your enemy (satisfied, satisfied..)
