

Don't Let Love Bring You Down

Alisha's Attic

I've had it with love
He's broken my heart
Overstepped the mark
It's just an illusion
That we wouldn't fight
Love was a riot
And I won't sold you no more
I won't sold you no more

Some use love to criticise
Some use love to hypnotise
Fell for his eyes
And fell for his lies
And some they put their spell on you
You can break it if you want to
You've got to be stronger
So don't let love bring you down
You get a good thing now
Yeah don't let love bring you down
You've got to forgive and forget now
Yeah don't let love bring you down
You get a good thing now
Yeah don't let love bring you down
You've got to forgive and forget now

I'll draw up a plan
Lay down the lines
Never surfed my ten
Just hang on cloud nine
And all that has been
Manifest to my fate
I just made a beautiful escape
A beautiful escape

Some use love to criticise
Some use love to hypnotise
Fell for his eyes
And fell for his lies
And some they put their spell on you
You can break it if you want to
You've got to be stronger
So don't let love bring you down
You get a good thing now
Yeah don't let love bring you down
You've got to forgive and forget now
Yeah don't let love bring you down
You get a good thing now
Yeah don't let love bring you down
You've got to forgive and forget now

I thought I'd never fall in love again

So don't let love bring you down
Yeah don't let love bring you down
You've got to forgive and forget now

Yeah don't let love bring you down
You get a good thing now
Yeah don't let love bring you down
You've got to forgive and forget now
So don't let love bring you down
