

Stay Will U Stay

Alisha's Attic

We talk of tomorrow
But tomorrow never comes
We talk about our feelings
But the friends we are has me confused
Strange soul you are here we are
Locked up in my room
(Feelings flying round)
Feelings flying around like butterflies

And though I can't see into the future
All I can think of is stay, will you stay
And I invite you to spend the night
All I can think of is stay, will you stay
Stay, will you stay
Stay, will you stay

Underneath the sun
Our souls sitting one by one
(See how lonely they are)
We pick up the broken pieces of each other
Constantly
Strange voices I hear in my head
Telling me you're the one
And here we are tonight
I look in your eyes, it's done

And though I can't see into the future
All I can think of is stay, will you stay
And I invite you to spend the night
All I can think of is stay, will you stay
Stay, will you stay
Stay, will you stay

Cover your eyes
Who knows what will happen
We could capsize
If I told you how I really felt
And fate would captain the ship
And tonight it's in his hands
It's in his hands

And though I can't see into the future
All I can think of is stay, will you stay
And I invite you to spend the night
And all I can think of is stay, will you stay
Stay, will you stay
Stay, will you stay
Stay, will you stay
Stay, will you stay
