

Procession Of Ashes

All Shall Perish

Give me your attention please. This isn't a drill. They're shooting to kill. Still I'm here breathing. Come with me now.

Together we can start the fire. Burning the whole world to ash. This place is set for ruination. Let's help it fall apart.

Striking the match as you set the world aflame. Watch it as it burns away. We all want to end it, but we're too afraid. Let me pave the way.

Burn it all down (5x)

Why should we care? We were all forsaken anyway. I've seen the despair. I cannot take it.

Burn it all down [8x]

We are disgusted with all the corruption and all the misleading depraved. All you who use us, we'll render you useless and watch as your life blows away.
