

Allthymn

All

When I was young I wallowed in none
You know none is no way to be
You must go for all Go for all and all will set you free

if you continue to wallow in Noneconcious and hollow Nonetheless go for all
And allness will follow

all, like gravity
Is there all the time
Applehead newton
Was a figment of mind

run far and wide
But you can't hide
We're all
We got no sense of pride!

we won't exercise
Undue force Or engage in Somenatious intercourse allulations to the all-worthy All is all you need It's the fifth primary colour It's the number between zero and infinity some would have you settle for itself When all is in your grasp

when I was young I wallowed in none
You know none is no way to be
Now I go for all
Go for all and all will set you free

don't mistake all for love or hate It's not like any other mental state
It's the total extent, when nothing else remains The utmost possible of possible gains there'll be no selfishness, evil, or greed All don't care about your race or creed

All is all you have to do Cause anything else would be a.u.

I was a non entity once
Then I receive a revallution
It made me re evaluate my way of life
I allivated my outlook
Some said I had allterior motives

they were right
My life started all over again
It's all up to you

But are you up to all?

ye must quest all

Lest ye become nomefull

Or something of a noneskull

Saying something that is nonesense
