Allele

No more conflicts, empty side-walks, black canvas,
Looks like heaven has moved on,
It's feeding, it's crawling up,
Like slithers, a fascist desolation
And it leads me to comatose
Invite, I no longer a way to fight it!

I can't see, I've lost my answer
I can't see, and it won't get any better, I
Face the wall, and it falls just to break all my faith
I need a saviour, I'm lost
I'm lost

No more secrets! No more prophets!
No more design! It's a fake,
Paint the streets with war,
Break through every door,
Hate the fight but I will be burning anyway,
You answered the call that I leave just to fall,
What happens now that it's over?

I can't see, I've lost my answer
I can't see, and it won't get any better, I
Face the wall, and it falls just to break all my faith
I need a saviour, I'm lost!

And as the ground breaks and the waters flood in It's pains me to face all the trouble I'm in,
I want to jump off the world and watch it spin,
Just to see the sky rip open!

I can't see, I've lost my answer,
I can't see and it won't get any better, if
There's a way we can make all the world come to pray,
Would it need a saviour?

I can see, I've lost my answer
I can see, and it won't get any better, I
Face the wall, and it falls just to break all my faith
I need a saviour, I'm lost!

I'm lost!
