

Closure

Allele

There was lies too complicate
What I am, what I am
Now there's a line to separate
What I am

A face to old to carry on
It rips me open my faith is all I have
A back to broke to carry on
I stop to walk but I just run again.

I'm getting closer,
To ending all the lies
My closure has become
What I'm now holding
All this hatred that
I know it's add a hole
And now I close the door
Just to find some rights

You showed ways to death it case
Sarcasm falling and turned to waist
[?]
And I know it's ending

I'm getting closer to ending all the lies
My closure has become
What I'm now holding
All this hatred that
I know it's add a hole and
Now I close the door and now
Desperate I have to find

What's my always sun,
The fade an open one
I feel insane,
Now they closed, it's shutted,
They following us, I feel alive
So I send the closure gate, so I don't run again
I'm getting closer to ending all the lies
My closure has become what I'm now holding in

I'm getting closer to ending all the lies
My closure has become
What I'm now holding
All this hatred that
I know it's add a hole
Now I close the door
