Dream About Tomorrow

Allen-Lande

Lost in a haze
Feel like I'm wasting my life
Teachings of pain
They got me for real

Sinner or Saint
Now I am choosing my fate
Angels of death will come for me
He will set my soul free

Songs of tomorrow Silence is real Songs of the yesterday I must be brave

So I dream about tomorrow

Dream away today

Cause I'm raining down with sorrow

Need to find a better way

Halfway but into deep Dreaming of change They're walking sleep So I dream about tomorrow

The silence is cruel It's so hard to bear Light fades away It just isn't fair

Songs of tomorrow Silence is real Songs of the yesterday I must be brave
