Something To Hold On To

Allie Moss

You give me something to hold on to I hear your voice and it quiets my mind Every beautiful melody Every perfect, piercing line You give me something to hold on to

You are a vessel of light to me tonight And while I wrestle with demons and appetites I cling to you

You give me something to hold on to You tell the stories I need you to tell Something in the way you sing Pulls me out of my lonely hell You give me something to hold on to Sing to me

Sing to me, sing to me Your melancholy songs Sing to me, sing to me And I will hold on
