

A Little Bit of Love

Alvin Lee

Well the times have changed, and it's getting cold
And I want some love Babe, for I get too old
Well you drive me crazy, with the things you do
And I can't get enough of you

All the times we've had, are a memory
And I just can't tell you, what you mean to me
Well you drive me crazy, with the things you do
And I can't get enough of you

Well I just can't tell you, how it got this way
Just want to hold you, and love you every day
Well a little bit of love, goes a long long way
And you drive me crazy, with the things you say
Well I don't want much, all I can get
And I can't get enough of your love

Well you hold my hand, I can feel the fire
And you drive me wild, with your warm desire
Well I just can't help it, all the things you do
And I can't get enough of you
