

I've Got Eyes for You Baby

Alvin Lee

Said I need some lovin', so - meet you at the station
Pick you up at eight, were gonna have a celebration
I gotta tell you something you need to know
Gotta tell you woman that I love you so
Baby won't you meet me, gonna be all-right
I've gotta have lovin', on a Saturday night

Well I need a lotta lovin', so you better be aware
No time for lovin', then you better not be there
I got eyes for you baby, I got eyes for you baby
I got eyes for you mama - gonna have a real good time

Well you know pretty woman, what is on my mind
Baby when you get it, I'm sure you're gonna find
I've got eyes for you baby, I've got eyes for you baby
I've got eyes for you honey - gonna do some lovin' with you

I've got eyes for you baby, I've got eyes for you baby
I got eyes for you baby, got eyes for you baby
I've got eyes for you baby, won't you do some lovin' with me

Said I need some lovin', so - meet you at the station
Pick you up at eight, were gonna have a celebration
I gotta tell you something you need to know
Gonna tell you baby that I love you so
Baby won't you meet me, gonna be all-right
I gotta have lovin', on a Saturday night

I got eyes for you baby - I got eyes for you baby
I got eyes for you baby - got eyes for you baby
Got eyes for you baby - gonna have a real good time.
