

Tell Me Why

Alvin Lee

Tell me why why why this change in you
Won't you tell me what you're tryin' to do
Tell me why why why this change of heart
Have mercy you're tearing me apart

I get all shook up fit to bust
There's no one left that I can trust
And it's got me thinking that I'm nobody's fool
You get easy money from hard earned cash
And you might think I'm talking trash
But that ain't bad 'cause I am staying cool

Tell me why why why this change in you
Won't you tell me what you're tryin' to do
Tell me why why why this change of mind
Won't you tell me why you're so unkind
(Why you're so unkind to me)

Tell me why why why this change in you
Won't you tell me what you're tryin' to do
Tell me why why why this change of heart
Have mercy you're tearing me apart

Tell me why why why this change in you
Won't you tell me what you're tryin' to do
Tell me why why why this change of mind
Won't you tell me why you're so unkind
(Be unkind to me one more time).
