

Try to Be Righteous

Alvin Lee

Won't you try to be righteous, try to live right
Don't you be swayed by what they tell you - oh, oh
Won't you try to be strong, try to be strong
Don't you believe you could fall

There's too much burden - oh, oh
So much lovin' to know
Oooo, and your mind will have this high

So much deep inside you, so much more to find
Don't be afraid to reach too high
