

World Is Spinning Faster

Alvin Lee

World is spinnin' faster
I can take the pace
Try and be your master
And that's the human race

I don't want to fight no more,
I'll just lay down on the floor
I don't wanna sleep my life away,
You can win or lose it anyway
I won't play the games,
You want to play no more

Spinnin', spinnin', spinnin'
It seems my life is just a dream
Energy flow just like a dream
To search and think just where it runs
And I will take it as it comes

World is spinnin' faster
It's changin' far to fast
Try to be your master
Well then, could it last

I don't want to fight no more,
I'll just lay down on the floor
I don't wanna sleep my life away,
I just wanna take what comes my way
I don't need a rope beside me anymore

Spinnin', spinnin', spinnin'
Now I must search to find the clue
And in God's deepness I half-knew
And now I need not search no more
Cause I can go to any door

Spinnin', spinnin', spinnin'
