If I

Amanda Shires

If I
Were to break a promise that I made
Would you really want me
Would you really want me to come clean?
I mean if it was nothing
Just some loneliness on an empty road
If the whole time
I had my eyes closed?
If it was just a night
Nothing pretty to hold on to
No light in those stars

Just once, could I leave it in the dark?
If I didn't feel anything
If it'll never happen again
If I never learned his name
Could it stay lost and far away?
If I
Were to break a promise that I gave
Would you really want me
Would you really want me to come clean?
