

Mirror, Mirror

Amanda Shires

She takes pictures like the world is The ocean's her favorite backdrop
Advertisin' that the sweet life
Is white-flashed and dream-like
So much I'm unsure of my own

Toronto to Tel Aviv
Snapshots from the window seat
Sunsets and palm trees
So proud of her body
So much I'm unsure of my own

Mirror, mirror in my head
Show me somethin' different than
The mirror
On the wall

A champagne toast to prove Her fiancé The daughter of Zeus
I compare myself to
I hope it rains on her weddin' day

Fridays are like Mondays to me
Except for what's on the TV
Up early and dreamin'
Of a six-by-three screen and
Of a story my own

Mirror, mirror in my head
Show me somethin' different than
The mirror
On the wall
Mirror, mirror in my head
Show me somethin' different than
The mirror
On the wall

Mirror, mirror in my head
Show me somethin' different than
The mirror
On the wall
Mirror, mirror in my head
Show me somethin' different than
The mirror
On the wall
