

Die and Wake Up

Amaranthe

Hey now, let go of your morality
(Insanity)
'Cause you don't see what I see
If you said so, you think that I would follow you
Swallow your words
It's not a one-man show, no

Speak your ego, with your depravity
'Cause you don't see what I see
Interface with humanity, serenity
'Cause I was made to lead so

Take me away from this intrinsic nightmare
Giving it up, I set my mind at ease now

Why can't I just die and wake up
To let go? (Never let it go, never let it go)
Break with the past and I know
Don't need your rain on my soul
As I go (Never let me go, never let me go)
Why can't I die and wake up?

Set your time bomb
Don't ever follow me
This is a one way road
If I let go
You think that I would drown with you
But I'm ruling my own world
Wake me up from this eternal struggle
Giving it up, I free mind from spirits

Why can't I just die and wake up
To let go? (Never let it go, never let it go)
Break with the past and I know
Don't need your rain on my soul
As I go (Never let me go, never let me go)
Why can't I die and wake up?

Building it up, pushing it down
Brick by brick, I annihilate the past and present
Digging it up, taking it down
I'm a shockwave, so feel the massive vibration

Hey now, let go of your morality
(Insanity)
'Cause you don't see what I see
If you said so you think that I would follow you
Swallow my words
It's not a one-man show, no

Why can't I just die and wake up
To let go? (Never let it go, never let it go)
Break with the past and I know
Don't need your rain on my soul
As I go (Never let me go, never let me go)
Why can't I die and wake up?

(Why can't I die and wake up?)
