

Im Sorry I Ruined Everything

American Aquarium

Skyline waitin' for sunrise
A train is rumblin' near by
And the sound of the engineer is getting close
The front seat we confront your fears
And my fingertips wipe away the tears
From the face that has haunted all my dreams

You said that I ruined everything tonight
You said that I ruined everything
Well I'm sorry I ruined your night
I'm sorry I ruined those years
I'm sorry I ruined everything

I'll never forget that look in your eye
The way that day you said "Goodbye"
I offered the world and you just walked away
Like the summer you were gone
You left with just what you had on
But you forgot to give me back my heart

You said that I ruined everything in your life
You said that I ruined everything
Well I'm sorry I ruined your life
I'm sorry I ruined those years
I'm sorry I ruined everything

"No, you pick the place to meet
"A cup of coffee, a bite to eat"
That's what she said before she hung up the phone
She knew all there was to know
I wonder why she let me go
I was the only boy who knew more than her name

She said that I ruined everything in her life
She said that I ruined everything
Well I'm sorry I ruined your life
I'm sorry I ruined two years
I'm sorry I ruined everything

Well I'm sorry I ruined your life
I'm sorry I ruined two years
I'm sorry I ruined everything
Everything
I'm sorry I ruined everything
