

Blue Day

American Hi-Fi

I want to get out when everything's all right
Can't you see I'm a wreck? Gonna crash and burn
I want to get out; I've done my time
If you fuck with me, I might blow your mind, yeah

I'm not qualified to answer anyone
If the world can wait, then why can't I?
You're not justified in what you do or say
Empty heads in a line, yeah, you're on your way

I'm not asking for much; just get outta my way
I'm in the eye of the storm, beautiful blue day

I want to get out when everything's all right
Can't you see I'm a wreck? Gonna crash and burn
I want to get out; I've done my time
If you fuck with me, I might blow your mind, yeah

I'm not asking for much; just get outta my way
I'm in the eye of the storm, beautiful blue day

I'm not asking for much; just get outta my way
I'm in the eye of the storm, beautiful blue day

Blue day
Blue day
