

Hello Amsterdam

American Music Club

Hello Amsterdam my name is Fernando
Hello Amsterdam I bet you've seen my kind before Another sad tourist with his eyes rolling in his head
Another sad tourist who never had a drink before

Hello Amsterdam you didn't like my Waterloo
Hello Amsterdam I wish I had something to offer you Tail between my leg I crawl back to the canal
All alone with my eyes rolling like the moon

There once was a white elephant that escaped from the zoo
Got to the big city and didn't know what to do
Had a sticker on his shirt that said,
'Hello my name is unclean'
I swear they would have liked us if we'd played Dancing Queen

Hello Amsterdam don't I look cool in my white shirt
Hello Amsterdam don't I look hip in my red tie
We came from America so you could share in the pride
Guilt, greed, and genocide
