

Love And Logic

American Steel

Sunrise I see in your eyes
Destroy the future now
Of those whose motivation is just fear and superstition

Huddled masses rise up
Rebel hearts stand tall
Because love's the only answer
For anything you've ever wondered
That is, love and logic
We want love and logic
We need love and logic

Daughters of the revolution
Still waiting for resolution
Come sons of everyman
Still waiting for their promised land

Huddled masses rise up
Rebel hearts stand tall
Because love's the only answer
To anything you've ever wondered
That is, love and logic
We want love and logic
We need love and logic

Sunrise I see in your eyes
Destroy their future before it kills us
Destroy their future now
