

Seen It All Before

Amos Lee

Go ahead baby,
run away again.
Growing tired of chasing you.
I know you only have time to love me.
You've got nothing better to do.

Who's bold enough to believe?
Either love or war,
Both just leave you busted,
and broken down.
Wanting more.

Baby, I've seen it all before.
Know that I've seen it all before.
Know that I've seen it all before.
I ain't gonna be your fool any more.

I can hear my heart pounding,
oh but I can't decide.
Stuck between the depths of my fears,
and peaks of my pride.

Baby, I've seen it all before.
Know that I've seen it all before.
You know that I've seen it all before.
And I ain't gonna be your fool any more.

I've seen your tricks,
and seen your trade-offs.
I've seen your evil ways.
I've seen everything,
your twisted smile conveys.

I ain't gonna be your fool baby [x7]
Any more..
