

Coming Out Of The Pain

Amy Dalley

Like a drink of water
To thirsty ground
You heal me
You fill me
Like a taste of freedom
On my tongue
I'm satisfied
The world is right
And every sound from your mouth
Fills the spaces where the hurt poured out
And every night I close my eyes
I can't believe that you are mine

(Chorus)

I'm coming out of the pain
Into the sunshine
Through the rain
For the first time in forever
I'm smiling down a brand new day
On the edge of falling deep
I am not afraid
I'm coming out of the pain

I was as fragile
As paper thin glass
On the verge of Giving up
I was caught in the moment
Of breaking down
My mistakes
On replay
And every scar had left its mark
You were so careful with my heart
And I began to trust in us
To want the rush of this sweet love

(Repeat Chorus)

On the edge of falling deep
I am not afraid
I'm coming out of the pain
Yeah I'm coming out of the pain
Yeah, yeah
I'm coming out of the
I'm coming out of the pain yeah
