

Dark Water

Amy Lee

I thought I heard your footsteps coming up the stairs,
But it was only my heart pounding in my ears

I thought I saw your light flicker in the window
But It was only my eyes reflecting my despair

And alone I will wander through the dark dark water Until I collect every shattered piece of my broken heart And wait for a reason to exist again
