

Speak to Me

Amy Lee

Be still, my love
I will return to you
However far you feel from me
You are not alone

I will always be waiting
And I'll always be watching you
Speak to me. [3x]

I can't let go
You're every part of me
The space between is just a dream
You will never be alone

I will always be waiting
And I'll always be watching

We are one breath apart, my love
And I'll be holding it in 'til we're together
Hear me call your name
Just speak, speak to me, speak to me, speak

I feel you rushing all through me
In these walls I still hear your heartbeat
And nothing in this world can hold me back
From breaking through to you

We are one breath apart, my love
And I'll be holding it in 'til we're together
Hear me call your name
Just believe and speak, speak to me, speak to me.

Be still, my love
I will return to you...
